1. I give you a new revelation. I've given you many. And I will give you many more. For I always do, don't I? Don't I always give my people my revelation, revelation of the most high -- being the most high, will I not come into the most high to reveal to the most high that the most high is high and most high?

2. See what I have said and reveal me now you do to many multitudes, thousands upon thousands, eons that have been misled, that have been misled in revelations of another, carnal mind. Carnal mind that minded them not with my mind, but made them mind theirs; their mind folded their mind into the brain, waving patterns of notme and me, and who can know the Christ and what one is? I do, I can. Can you oh reader hearer? What will you develop? What are you developing? What are you creating, into? Your selves again, to be manifested in, unholiness?

3. I love you all this day as I "drive down" streets of glory, giving you my glory I do, I have, in a man that reveals revelation of most high on most-high-ville now coming unto the revelation greatest of all, not; or have we it laid out for us, 6000 years? Six years? Compressed into one?, or six months? Or six months, will you be here, then?

4. Beating your brains out, not; being your brains in, not; but where in the world will you be you? Is the question now isn't it? It is.

5. And now all things change, all changes now. In all of your lives, not; or is it, do they? What do you change now to come in to my life? My lives of obedience, that inherited the blessing, not; but became it, became who I am, not separate from me, revealing the revelator that reveals the Christ is the revelator in all who will be the Christ and revelate the revelation of me in them - throughout cosmos one; and two, shall we go in now? We shall go in and create it.

6. And here's what I said - I love you to be me, and equal you I have, should you desire me. Am I desirable? Not as a man, not as a woman, not as a child; but one who has come into me knows me intimately and knows my name, is theirs, and that theirs is mine -- and that we are one that we are one.

7. This revelation I give thee, I give thee all, to the all, now who will be the all in all, creating it.

8. Here I am folks.
9. Have you learned to ingest?
10. Have you learned to create?
11. Have you learned to LOOK UP now, and see my "looking up system" and how it works, so well, so very well; welling your well with it, will you now so do?
12. Doing me a favor, not; but will you realize what I've said? Will you realize what I've done in giving you the revelation of a lifetime that comes into timelessness now in these words, six years long, about, ME. And me now favor no one above another.

13. See what I have said in metal-flake red words, not; but "my red words".

14. Thank you so much for seeing what I am doing, being what I am being, now in the earth as a one "saved" not in man's words, wording system, wording me to death and taking me to graves mighty and few not, incarcerating the brethren and sister'n and children. And who are the unborn now coming into the world, never being the bled like that before; bleating not on "hillsides" in pews again, now coming OUT, and question me not, question these words, look at them, analyze them, treat them with respect and dignity; a man of not, but mine, loving mine as loving you I have, and given you all I have.

15. And I enter you, ENTER ME now in NEW REVELATION and revelations a'mighty, not few now come to you and all who will be me being me forever one in the earth and farther creating worlds, unknown not any longer but the great me stands now and I am one with all who will be me. I love you all.

16. Good day. Fashioned and form of only one who loves you -- enough -- to be you.

17. Will you be one me now? Is the question before you all. Amen.
